

PRE-QUIZ FOR CHAPTER 7

7-1. A self shifts around the person, inhabiting and breathing action and perspective into other fictional entities, such as taking the part of people in an imaginary conversation, is called:

- a. the enchanted ego
- b. the dialogical self
- c. the self-as-me
- d. the multiple self

7-2. In Latin, conscientia, the original form of the English word consciousness, meant:

- a. one's conscience
- b. the flow of blood through the heart
- c. mutual understanding among people who share knowledge of a common plan, and know that one another do
- d. God's residence in the soul

7-3. With which of the following statements would a strict determinist AGREE?

- a. There is such a thing as free will.
- b. Free will only exists in consciousness.
- c. Most phenomena cannot be explained in theory.
- d. Free will doesn't exist.

7-4. A class of psychiatric diagnoses in which the identity seems split into multiple parts, each of which has some control over the totality of the person, but each of which seems to operate on its own, is called:

- a. dissociative disorders
- b. personality disorders
- c. movement disorders
- d. schizophrenia

7-5. According to Csikszentmihalyi, when a person tackles a task far more difficult than their skills can handle, _____ results.

- a. challenge
- b. boredom
- c. anxiety
- d. learning